My Experience doing fun Latin things

“There is a shortage of certified Latin teachers in the United States.”

—Ronnie Ancona and Kathleen Durkin, in the Society for Classical Studies' Amphora

OU Classics Day

A Really Good Start

What am I proposing?

- ❖ Have Classics majors interact with teachers
- ❖ Have Classics majors interact with students
- ❖ Have Classics majors facilitate activities

Logistics

- ❖ OU Classics Day already exists
- ❖ Selling it to classics majors
- ❖ Getting funding

What do I think it will do?

- ❖ Show classics majors that kids really aren't that bad
- ❖ Increase the chances that classics majors will develop interest in teaching
- ❖ Promote Latin
- ❖ Show highschool students there is a future in classics
- ❖ Reconnect classics majors with younger Latin communities
